The Mary Steele Study Class will hold its first meeting with Miss Georgia Biggs Thursday evening, December 4th, at seven o'clock. All members expected to attend. Mrs. Mial Leak is teacher, and the class is to study "Making America Safe."

Miss Beth Thomas entertained her Bridge Club Saturday afternoon. The home was decorated with potted plants and blooming flowers which enhanced the attractiveness of the home. Five tables for bridge were arranged in the living room where the game was rife, until after several progressions, the scores were asked for and Mrs. J. L. Hawley was found to hold the highest, and she was given a bottle of Azura Perfume. The hostess assisted by her mother served delicious chicken salad, beaten biscuit, pickle, cheese straws and hot coffee. Besides the club members, enjoying this hospitality were: Mrs. W. S. Thomas, Miss Luna Thompson, of Baltimore, house-guest of Mrs. H. C. Wall, Mrs. Howard, of Columbia, Miss Minnie Little, visitor of Mrs. W. N. Everett, Mrs. J. L. Hawley, Mrs. Henry Guthrie, Miss Hazel Thompson, guest of Mrs. Jake Hinson, Miss Elmer Warburton.

Miss Minnie Garrett was hostess for her Rook Club on Saturday afternoon. Four tables were set for the game in the living room where all were soon much interested in the contest for an hour or more, when the hostess called the game off and served a salad course consisting of fruit salad, cheese and olive sandwiches, beaten biscuit, pickle, hot coffee and whipped cream, sugar. Enjoying this delightful hospitality besides the club were Miss Barnwell and Miss Cliff Bennett.

The Roberdel Community Club, on Thanksgiving Day, will entertain their husbands and daughters with a dinner at the residence of Mrs. George Terry. In the afternoon a business meeting will be held, presided over by Head of this particular Department in the county, Mrs. John Sandy Covington, when topics of special interest will be brought up and new suggestions will be for discussion. These "Get Together Meetings" are of marked interest and splendid benefit to the Community; many new wrinkles or plans developed are "passed along" and so these annual meetings are planned and looked forward to with great enthusiasm and interest. Fruit and berry culture are among the subjects that are receiving special attention just now.

Mrs. Ada Morrison Nutall has returned to Charlotte after a short visit to the family of her brother, Mr. John Morrison.

Mrs. Walter L. Parsons has gone to Raleigh to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. West. Mrs. Parsons expects to be away about two weeks.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fowlkes, Saturday night, a splendid son, W. M. Jr., weighing ten pounds. The mother and youngster are getting along fine.

News from the Hospital in Charlotte is to the effect that Mr. John Ledbetter who went there to undergo an operation, is getting along well. Dr. J. M. Ledbetter came down from New York, where he is attending special lectures for several weeks, to be with Mr. Ledbetter. Dr. Ledbetter returned to New York the next day.

Mrs. Henry Wall and visitor, Miss Luna Thompson, of Baltimore, Misses Jennie and Rosa Parsons, Kathryn McDonald and Mr. Don Phillips went in Mrs. Wall's car to Pinehurst Friday to the Sand Hill Fair. They remained over and partook of the elegant dinner at the Carolina Hotel.

Mrs. J. M. Ledbetter and Misses May, Eleanor, and Faith Covington and Mrs. Robert Simmons were among the visitors from Rockingham that attended the Sand Hill Fair at Pinehurst, last week.

The Hamlet Cotillion Club gave a very delightful dance Monday night, Meyer Davis Band of Washington making the music.

Mrs. A. A. Williams, who makes her home in Charlotte, is in Rockingham for a visit to her sons' families, Messrs. Claude and Jesse Williams, of the Belk store.

Mrs. Milton Fowlkes, who has been visiting relatives in Florence, S. C., returned to Rockingham Saturday night.

Miss Nancy Fairley is visiting friends in Charlotte this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson, of Greenville, Ala., who have been visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairley for the past week, have gone to their home in Alabama.

On Thursday evening, November 20th, Dr. A. C. Everett entertained a coterie of his family and friends from Laurinburg and Rockingham. Twenty gentlemen came in honor of his birthday. The long table was decorated in red and gold Autumn leaves with Paper White Narcissus as a center piece. The dinner was served in courses—grape fruit, consommé a la royal, toast fried oysters, pickle and crackers, turkey with dressing, cold country ham, green peas, candied yams, coggie and olives and celery, canton punch, cigarettes, quail on toast, lemon and jelly, pine apple salad, cheese and wafers, plum pudding with ice cream sauce, cigars. Judging from the sound of merriment as the evening waned, there was a feast royal, both of good cheer and fellowship. Those bidden to this delightful affair were Messrs. T. C. Everett, R. C. and Harry Everett, J. T. John, Dr. Peter John, D. K. McRae, Dr. C. W. Regan, F. P. B. Pegues, L. J. Bell, Dr. McPhail, I. S. London, W. N. Everett, J. L. and J. Lee Everett, J. C. Dockery, H. C. Wall, Geo. S. Steele, W. B. Cole, Rev. H. M. North, W. P. and M. W. McRae, T. C. Leak, Dr. F. J. Garrett, W. E. Harrison, A. G. Corpening, Donald Phillips, Claude Gore. At a late hour the party left showering the Doctor with all good wishes that he would live to celebrate just one hundred more and invite them all every time.

Mrs. H. C. Wall entertained a forenoon Bridge Party at her attractive home Tuesday, honoring her house guest, Miss Luna Thompson, of Baltimore. Blooming flowers and potted plants were used in the decorations throughout the house. Tables were placed in the living room, parlor and hall where the game was most enthusiastically enjoyed. When the hostess called the game off Mrs. Fred Bynum held top score, and received a couple of handsome embroidered kerchiefs, and Miss Faith Covington the visitors' prize, a pair of silk hose. To the hour guest Mrs. Wall presented a handsome pair of embroidered silk hose. The hostess served a delicious salad course and accessories. This was one of the prettiest and largest parties of the autumn, and, as all Mrs. Wall's parties are, thoroughly delightful.

INTERESTING MEETING

The Rebecca LeGrand Missionary Society held a most interesting meeting at the home of Misses Marie and Tessie Covington on last Tuesday evening. Quite a number were present, and each one seemed greatly interested in the work.

The president, Miss Octavia Scales, presided, and also conducted the devotional services.

Following the opening devotional, a business session was held.

Miss Mary Stansill, Treasurer, made her report for the three quarters of this year, which showed quite an increase in finances over last year. Most of the members have paid all finances in full for this year, and the treasurer expects to collect the balance that the society may combine the "Harvest Day Meeting" with the regular December meeting.

This society has a "Bible Study Class" in connection with the monthly program, and on last Tuesday night their special study was Moses and Elijah. Miss Ophelia Ormond gave a very interesting account of the life and work of Moses and Miss Jamie Cole of Elijah, and each then left the subject open for discussion by members of the society, which proved very helpful and instructive.

After short talks on the work by Miss Georgia Biggs and Mrs. Geo. Steele, the society enjoyed a delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

This society is moving rapidly to the front in our young people's work, under the wise leadership of Mrs. Geo. Steele, and we expect to hear greater things from them in the future. They are doing a wonderful work. They were organized not quite two years ago with four members, and now have 28 wide-awake members.

Convalescents

Build Up On

Pepto-Mangan

Increases the Supply of Rich Red Blood—Restores the Strength and Vigor

Physicians Recommend

Sold in Liquid and Tablet Form—the Name "Gude's" the Guide to Genuine Peto-Mangan

A serious illness such as influenza or other infectious disease always leaves the body with low vitality, lack of strength, and impoverished blood.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan aids convalescents to a quick recovery, for it creates a generous supply of rich, red blood and restores the body to its normal, healthy condition.

That's why physicians recommend Pepto-Mangan, for they know that it imparts to the blood the material so sorely needed by weak, run-down systems.

Pale, sallow, thin, easily-exhausted men and women find that Pepto-Mangan builds them up wonderfully. A new supply of rich, red blood is created, which in turn imparts the glow of health to the cheeks, increases the appetite, the eyes sparkle, the entire system takes a new lease on life.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there, it is not Pepto-Mangan.
